Notes to the Condensed Interim Financial Statements

Three Months Ended March 31, 2014 and 2013

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars, Unaudited)

1. Nature of Operations and Going Concern

Valterra Resource Corporation (the "Company") was incorporated in Alberta on September 26, 1996, continued to the Yukon on May 8, 1997 and subsequently continued to British Columbia on February 22, 2008.

The Company's principal business activities include the acquisition, exploration, and development of natural resource properties for enhancement of value and disposition pursuant to sales agreements or development by way of third party option and/or joint venture agreements. The Company's registered office is 1710 - 1177 West Hastings Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, V6E 2L3.

The business of exploring for minerals involves a high degree of risk and there can be no assurance that any of the Company's current or future exploration programs will result in profitable mining operations. The recoverability of amounts shown for mineral properties is dependent upon the discovery of economically recoverable reserves, the ability of the Company to obtain financing to complete their exploration and development, and establish future profitable operations, or realize proceeds from their sale. The carrying value of the Company's mineral properties does not reflect present or future value.

These condensed interim financial statements were prepared on a going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business. As at March 31, 2014, the Company had a working capital deficit of $397,658 (December 31, 2013 - $563,524). The Company incurred a net loss of $46,944 for the three months ended March 31, 2014 (2013 - $413,231) and had an accumulated deficit of $12,497,134 as at March 31, 2014 (December 31, 2013 - $12,458,430).

As at March 31, 2014, the Company does not have sufficient working capital to meet its administrative overheads and continue with its exploration programs. The Company has relied mainly upon the issuance of share capital to finance its activities. Future capital requirements will depend on many factors including the Company's ability to execute its business plan. The Company will be required to issue share capital to finance future activities through private placements and the exercise of options and warrants and is actively seeking additional equity financing. There can be no assurance that such financing will be available to the Company and, therefore, a material uncertainty exists that casts substantial doubt over the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

These condensed interim financial statements do not include the adjustments to assets and liabilities that would be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

2. Basis of Preparation

These condensed interim financial statements were prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standards 34: Interim Financial Reporting on a historical cost basis using the accrual basis of accounting, except for cash flow information and certain financial assets and financial liabilities recorded at fair value.

2. Basis of Preparation, continued

They do not include all of the information required for full annual financial statements and should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited annual financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2013.

The same accounting policies are used in the preparation of these condensed interim financial statements as for the most recent audited annual financial statements and reflect all the adjustments necessary for fair presentation in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") of the results for the interim periods presented.

The Company's functional and presentation currency is the Canadian dollar.

3. Mineral Properties

The Company has the irrevocable right and option to satisfy any of the exploration commitments by issuing common shares of equal value based on the closing price on the day preceding the share issuance.

The optionor of the property retains the right to mine all vermiculite and limestone and also retains a 1.5% production royalty, which the Company has the option to purchase at any time in increments of 0.5% for $500,000 per increment.

(b) Swift Katie

Pursuant to an agreement dated July 21, 2006, as amended, Manex Resource Group Inc. ("Manex"), a private company controlled by a director of the Company, acquired an option to purchase the property located near Salmo, British Columbia. The option was assigned by Manex to the Company for $2,500 and the Company now owns a 100% interest in the property.

The optionors of the property retain a 3% net smelter royalty ("NSR") interest in the property. The Company has the option to purchase one-half of the NSR (1.5%) for $1,000,000 per 1% and the option to purchase a further one-sixth (0.5%) for an additional $1,500,000 at any time prior to the commencement of commercial production.

Beginning December 31, 2010 and annually thereafter, the Company is required to make an annual advance minimum royalty ("AMR") payment of $50,000. These payments will be adjusted annually according to the Consumer Price Index ("CPI") base of December 31, 2006 and are deductible from future NSR payments.

Pursuant to an amendment agreement, the AMR originally due on December 31, 2013 has been deferred to June 30, 2014.

In addition to the NSR and the AMR, if the Company completes a positive feasibility study, the Company will issue 250,000 common shares to the optionors and if the Company achieves commercial production, the Company will issue 500,000 common shares to the optionors.

On March 26, 2014, the Company entered into a definitive option agreement with Riverside Resources (BC) Inc., acting on behalf of its exploration alliance with a wholly owned subsidiary of Antofagasta plc. ("Alliance").

Under the agreement the Alliance can acquire an 80% interest by incurring property expenditures as follows:

- (i) Incur not less than an aggregate of $350,000 on or before April 23, 2015;
- (ii) Incur not less than an aggregate of $1,000,000 on or before April 23, 2016;
- (iii) Incur not less than an aggregate of $2,500,000 on or before April 23, 2017; and
- (iv) Incur not less than an aggregate of $5,000,000 on or before April 23, 2018.

(b) Swift Katie, continued

All future AMR payments will be assumed by the Alliance and, at any time, the Alliance can also purchase two-thirds (2%) of the underlying NSR for $3,000,000.

Upon exercise of the option, the Company and the Alliance shall be deemed to have formed a joint venture. The formal agreement governing the joint venture shall provide that in the event that the Company's interest is reduced to less than 10%, the Company will be deemed to have conveyed its interest to the other party in consideration of the right to receive a 2% NSR, which can be purchased by the other party at any time prior to the commencement of commercial production for $2,000,000.

4. Reclamation Bonds

Management's Discussion and Analysis

For the Three Months Ended March 31, 2014

D. Summary of Mineral Properties

The Company's principal business activities include the acquisition, exploration, and development of natural resource properties for enhancement of value and disposition pursuant to sales agreements or development by way of third party option and/or joint venture agreements and has been aggressively exploring in British Columbia and Ontario, Canada.

The Company is now continuing its focus on its Bobcaygeon graphite property in southern Ontario which is favorably situated within the Precambrian Grenville Province which is a prospective locale for potential graphitic deposits. The graphite veins are within calcitic marbles sitting west of a syenitic amphibolite unit and the contact is traceable for up to 10-12 kilometres.

On May 15, 2014, the Company entered into a Strategic Alliance ("Alliance") with Great Lakes Graphite Inc. with respect to the provision of services relating to development, production and marketing of graphite product. The Alliance has an initial term of three years during which Great Lakes Graphite Inc. will provide consulting services, utilizing its specialized personnel, to assist in the development of the property inclusive of assistance in raising development money.

The Company's Cu-Au-porphyry Swift Katie property is located within a highly metallogenic area of south-eastern British Columbia that historically has hosted several important mining districts, and is underlain by rocks considered very favourable for the discovery of porphyry-style mineralization.

On March 26, 2014, the Company entered into a definitive option agreement with Riverside Resources (BC) Inc., acting on behalf of its exploration alliance with a wholly owned subsidiary of Antofagasta plc. ("Alliance"). Under the agreement the Alliance can acquire an 80% interest by incurring property expenditures totalling $5,000,000.

Bobcaygeon

The property package encompasses over 195 square kilometres of claims, leases and private patents, and includes claims recently staked to cover important mineral trends and features. The property is located approximately 2.5 hours' drive north of Toronto and is close to transport, power, and numerous services.

Previous work on the project included: reconnaissance mapping and prospecting; backhoe excavator trenching; diamond drilling; surface geophysics; and whole rock/multi-element analyses. Sampling has identified extensive areas of anomalous to high-grade graphite throughout the property.

Salerno Zone

The Salerno Zone is located 24 kilometres northeast of the Discovery Trench and is hosted in rusty marble. Both the strike-length and thickness of the graphite-bearing stratigraphy make this a high priority target with the potential to develop both bulk tonnage and high-grade mineralization.

Crystal Zone

The Crystal Zone is located approximately 10.5 kilometres north-east of the Discovery Trench. Preliminary mapping in the area has shown that the graphitic horizon is associated with a biotitic/amphibolite gneiss and occurs in a unit ranging from 65 metres to 250 metres wide.

D. Summary of Mineral Properties, continued

The Salerno and Crystal zones are associated with the Salerno Creek Deformation Zone that forms a major tectonic boundary between the Bancroft Terrane and Harvey-Cardiff Arch. The terrane contact hosts the majority of past-producing graphite mines and significant graphite occurrences in the belt; mostly within major regional-scaled fault complexes.

4South Zone

The 4South Zone is located approximately 450 metres northwest of the Discovery Zone trench. The graphite is hosted in amphibolite gneiss and occurs on the edge of an electromagnetic anomaly within the Discovery Zone geophysical grid.

Corridor Zone (Bass Lake North)

The Corridor Zone is located 1 kilometre to the north of the Discovery Trench. Two trends of graphitic stratigraphy may represent parallel target horizons extending the full 1.75 kilometre trend of the currently delineated zone.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

For the Three Months Ended March 31, 2014

High-grade graphite horizons occur at both the Discovery and Salerno Zones. Trenching at the Discovery Zone has uncovered a high-grade vein which returned graphite values of 36.8% Cg over 1.5 metres, 20.2% Cg over 1.4 metres, 14.6% Cg over 0.7 metres. Sampling and mapping has extended the projection of the Discovery Zone mineralization to over 600 metres and now defines a priority drill target that is supported by recent EM and IP/Res geophysics on the property.

Historic drilling in the 1990's at the Salerno Zone (for zinc) identified graphite-bearing stratigraphy over a +2 kilometre strike length. Mapping in the area has identified two different graphite horizons and sampling has confirmed the high-grade potential of this newly developed occurrence. Current planning would test a +4 kilometre cumulative strike-length of the target area.

Further regional work including mapping, prospecting and trenching is planned to delineate the full extent of the graphitic stratigraphy throughout the property.

Swift Katie

The Swift Katie claims comprise more than 83 square kilometres located near Salmo, British Columbia within in an infrastructure-rich region of the province.

Since acquisition, the Company has completed 15 drill holes (4,866m) and returned several encouraging intercepts indicative of bulk-tonnage Cu-Au-Ag from the main Katie Zone. Mineralization occurs in volcano-sedimentary rocks of the Rossland Group which hosts numerous precious-metal and polymetallic past-producers in the region. The drilling outlines a Cu-Au-Ag inventory measuring approximately 600 metres of strike length by 400 metres width, and up to 300 metres depth; being open in several directions. Inventory review work included surveying of historic drill collars, an assessment of the historic QA/QC protocols, and drill spacing with the ultimate goal being to develop a NI 43-101 compliant bulk-tonnage Cu-Au-Ag resource.

Riverside has advised that crews are mobilized and initial surface exploration has begun. The work will be carried out as part of a $600,000 exploration budget for 2014, which will include mapping, prospecting, soil sampling and follow-up diamond drill testing of highly prospective areas within a 3 kilometre by 11 kilometre corridor of favourable geology, geochemistry and geophysics.

The program will be designed to evaluate, delineate and test copper-gold porphyry targets outside historically defined zones. Encouraging results obtained from due diligence work completed by Riverside identified a new, high priority target 3 kilometres south of the historically defined Katie copper-gold porphyry deposit. The newly identified "Swift" porphyry target is characterized by a 2 kilometre by 2 kilometre multi-element soil anomaly underlain by a favourable geophysical signature; this forested area has limited outcrop but porphyritic intrusive rocks and altered volcanic rocks were recognized by Riverside geologists within and adjacent to the target area.

The program will also aim to discover, through drilling and geochemistry, new areas of copper-porphyry mineralization moving towards an aggressive exploration program in 2015.

E. Results of Operations

During the three months ended March 31, 2014, the Company reported a net loss and comprehensive loss of $46,944 (2013 - $413,231). The following table summarizes variances in the statements of comprehensive loss:

	2014	2013	Increase/(Decrease)

Travel and promotion	-	35,672	(35,672)	(100%)
Interest income	(442)	(518)	76	(15%)
Reversal of flow-through premium	-	(21,150)	21,150	(100%)

Administration, consulting, investor relations and professional fees all decreased as a result of an office services agreement which ceased, effective October 1, 2013, after the Company received notice that it was in default of the agreement and that office accommodation and other personnel services would no longer be provided. Consulting fees also decreased due to the expiration of a contract for services with the Company's former president during September 2013.

As per the Company's mandate to acquire, explore, and develop mineral resource properties, the Company has continued to invest in its current projects based on financial resources that have been available.

Investor relations and travel and promotion also fluctuate based on the number of conferences and trade shows attended and other work performed in preparation of financing activities.

Professional fees also decreased due to the timing of the year-end audit.

Non-cash share-based payments are recognized when options are granted and vest.

During 2013, a flow-through share premium, which was recognized relating to the private placement of flow-through shares, was reversed on fulfillment of the flow-through obligation.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

For the Three Months Ended March 31, 2014

F. Summary of Quarterly Results

The following financial data was derived from the Company's financial statements for the last eight quarters:

	Mar 31	Dec 31	Sept 30	Jun 30	Mar 31	Dec 31	Sep 30	Jun 30
	2014	2013	2013	2013	2013	2012	2012	2012
	$	$	$	$	$	$	$	$
Net loss	46,944	307,101	121,741	291,561	413,231	467,022	204,297	107,034
Basic and diluted loss per share	$0.00	$0.01	$0.00	$0.01	$0.02	$0.04	$0.02	$0.01

The Company earned no revenue during the periods presented other than minimal interest income as the Company is in the exploration stage.

Quarterly fluctuations mainly related to share-based payments which vary as stock options are granted, expenditures on mineral property exploration which vary as projects are identified, impairment of mineral properties which vary as projects are assessed and deferred income tax adjustments relating to flow-through share premiums. Effective October 1, 2013, the Company received notice that it was in default of an office services agreement and that those services would no longer be provided.

G. Financial Condition, Liquidity and Capital Resources

As at March 31, 2014, the Company had a working capital deficit of $397,658 (December 31, 2013 - $563,524). The Company has been negotiating extended payment terms of its trade payables and reviewing its capital expenditure plan and future commitments to identify opportunities to reduce or delay spending and payments.

However, the Company does not generate any revenue from operations and, without further financing, the Company does not have sufficient capital to meet the requirements for its administrative overhead, maintaining its mineral interests and continuing with its exploration program in the following twelve months.

For the foreseeable future, the Company will need to rely on raising capital in the equity markets and/or enter into joint venture agreements with third parties to provide working capital and to finance its mineral property acquisition and exploration activities.

Although the Company has recently been successful in obtaining financing through the issuance of its securities, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain adequate financing in the future in light of factors such as the market demand for its securities, the general state of financial markets and other relevant factors.

Failure to obtain such additional financing could result in delay or indefinite postponement of further exploration and development of its projects with a possible loss of some properties and reduction or termination of operations.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

For the Three Months Ended March 31, 2014

G. Financial Condition, Liquidity and Capital Resources, continued

There have been no changes in the Company's approach to capital management during the three months ended March 31, 2014. Bank indebtedness is due on demand, bears interest at prime plus 1% per annum, and is secured by a letter of credit from Schroders (C.I.) supported by a guarantee by a company owned by a shareholder of the Company. On April 18, 2013, the Company entered into an agreement whereby the guarantee was extended until June 16, 2013. The Company is currently negotiating a further extension. The Company is in compliance with all externally imposed capital requirements.

(a) Service Agreement

Effective October 1, 2013, the Company received notice that it was in default an office services agreement between the Company and a private company controlled by a director and officer of the Company, originally effective July 1, 2012 and expiring on August 31, 2017. Until the default is remedied, office accommodation and other personnel services are no longer being provided.

(b) Flow-through Expenditures

As at March 31, 2014, the Company is committed to incur qualifying Canadian Exploration Expenditures of $50,000 with respect to the private placement of flow-through shares completed during the year ended December 31, 2013. Of the total commitment, the Company had incurred $18,321 as at March 31, 2014 and has a remaining commitment of $31,679 to be incurred by December 31, 2014.

M. Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Board of Directors, through its Audit Committee, is responsible for ensuring that management fulfills its responsibilities for financial reporting and internal control. The Audit Committee is composed of three independent directors, who meet at least quarterly with management and, at least annually with the external auditors to review accounting, internal control, financial reporting, and audit matters.

There have been no significant changes to the Company's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the period that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

The audit committee has established procedures for complaints received regarding accounting, internal controls or auditing matters, and for a confidential, anonymous submission procedure for employees who have concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters. The Whistleblower policy is in accordance with National Instrument 52-110 Audit Committees, National Policy 58-201 Corporate Governance Guidelines and National Instrument 58-101 Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practices.

Being a venture issuer, the Company is exempted from the certification on Disclosure Controls and Procedures and Internal Control Over Financial Reporting. The Company is required to file Form 52-109FV1 for annual reporting and Form 52-109FV2 for interim reporting.

N. Risks and Uncertainties

The principal business of the Company is the acquisition, exploration and development of mineral properties. Given the nature of the mining business, the limited extent of the Company's assets and the present stage of development, the following risk factors, among others, should be considered.

Exploration Stage Company

The Company does not hold any known mineral reserves of any kind and does not generate any revenues from production. The Company's success will depend largely upon its ability to locate commercially productive mineral reserves. Mineral exploration is highly speculative in nature, involves many risks and frequently is non productive. There is no assurance that exploration efforts will be successful. Success in establishing reserves is a result of a number of factors, including the quality of management, the level of geological and technical expertise, and the quality of property available for exploration.

Once mineralization is discovered, it may take several years in the initial phases of drilling until production is possible, during which time the economic feasibility of production may change. Substantial expenditures are required to establish proven and probable reserves through drilling and bulk sampling, to determine the optimal metallurgical process to extract the metals from the ore and, in the case of new properties, to construct mining and processing facilities. Because of these uncertainties, no assurance can be given that our exploration programs will result in the establishment or expansion of resources or reserves.

N. Risks and Uncertainties, continued

Operating History and Availability of Financial Resources

The Company has no operating revenues and is unlikely to generate any significant amount in the foreseeable future. Hence, it may not have sufficient financial resources to undertake by itself all of its planned mineral property acquisition and exploration activities. Operations will continue to be financed primarily through the issuance of securities.

The Company will need to continue its reliance on the issuance of such securities for future financing, which may result in dilution to existing shareholders. Furthermore, the amount of additional funds required may not be available under favourable terms, if at all. Failure to obtain additional funding on a timely basis could result in delay or indefinite postponement of further exploration and development and could cause the Company to forfeit its interests in some or all of its properties or to reduce or discontinue its operations.

Price Volatility and Lack of Active Market

In recent months, the securities markets in Canada and elsewhere have experienced a high level of price and volume volatility, and the market prices of securities of many public companies have experienced significant fluctuations in price which have not necessarily been related to the operating performance, underlying asset values or prospects of such companies. It may be anticipated that any quoted market for the Company's securities will be subject to such market trends and that the value of such securities may be affected accordingly. If an active market does not develop, the liquidity of the investment may be limited and the market price of such securities may decline below the subscription price.

Competition

The resource industry is intensively competitive in all of its phases, and the Company competes with many other companies possessing much greater financial and technical resources. Competition is particularly intense with respect to the acquisition of desirable undeveloped properties. The principal competitive factors in the acquisition of prospective properties include the staff and data necessary to identify and investigate such properties, and the financial resources necessary to acquire and develop the projects. Competition could adversely affect the Company's ability to acquire suitable prospects for exploration.

Title to Property

Although the Company has exercised the usual due diligence with respect to title to properties in which it has a material interest, there is no guarantee that title to the properties will not be challenged or impugned. The Company's mineral property interest may be subject to prior unregistered agreements or transfers, aboriginal land claims, government expropriation and title may be affected by undetected defects. In addition, certain of the mining claims in which the Company has an interest are not recorded in the name of the Company and cannot be recorded until certain steps are taken by other parties.

Government Regulations and Environmental Risks and Hazards

The Company's conduct is subject to various federal, provincial, state laws, rules and regulations, including environmental legislation.

Environmental legislation is becoming increasingly stringent and costs and expenses of regulatory compliance are increasing. The impact of new and future environmental legislation on the Company's operations may cause additional expenses and restrictions. If the restrictions adversely affect the scope of exploration and development on the resource property interests, the potential for production on the property may be diminished or negated. The Company has adopted environmental practices designed to ensure that it continues to comply with environmental regulations currently applicable to it. All of the Company's activities are in compliance in all material respects with applicable environmental legislation.

Environmental hazards may exist on the Company's properties, which may have been caused by previous or existing owners or operators of the properties. The Company is not aware of any existing environmental hazards related to any of its current or former property interests that may result in material liability to the Company.

Dependence on Key Personnel

The Company is dependent on a relatively small number of key directors, officers and senior personnel. Loss of any one of those persons could have an adverse affect on the Company.

The Company does not currently maintain "key-man" insurance in respect of any of its management.

Licenses and Permits

The operations of the Company require licenses and permits from various government authorities.

The Company believes that it holds all necessary licenses and permits under applicable laws and regulations for work in progress and believes it is presently complying in all material respects with the terms of such licenses and permits.

However, such licenses and permits are subject to change in various circumstances. There can be no guarantee that the Company will be able to obtain or maintain all necessary licenses and permits that may be required to explore and develop its properties, commence construction or operation of mining facilities or to maintain continued operations that economically justify the cost.

O. Proposed Transactions

Other than normal course review of monthly submittals and on-going plans to raise finance, there are no other proposed transactions contemplated as at the date of this report.

Forward-looking statements may be identified by the use of words such as "believes", "anticipates", "expects", "estimates", "may", "could", "would", "will", or "plan". Readers should not place undue reliance on the Company's forward-looking statements. Further information regarding these and other factors, which may cause results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, are included in the filings by the Company with securities regulatory authorities.
